Founded in 1989 by a group of local veterans, the Vietnam Center and Archive at Texas Tech collects, preserves, and makes available records of the Vietnam War. The Center and Archive has been the official repository for the VHPA since 1998 and welcomes all materials and perspectives concerning the war. We believe all of the sacrifices made during this period were significant and the individual collections and recollections of the men and women who participated in this event are equally important. All materials are preserved in keeping with modern archival practices and procedures to ensure they remain available for future generations. Currently, the Archive has over 2,000 collections containing an estimated 10 million pages of documentation in its manuscript collections, over 1,500 maps, and more than 100,000 photos and slides related to America's involvement in Vietnam.

Oral History Project

The Vietnam Archive is committed to preserving the history of the Wars in Southeast Asia from the perspective of the participants through the Oral History Project. If you are interested in being interviewed, contact us at (806) 742-9010 or via email at VAOralHistory@ttu.edu.

The Virtual Vietnam Archive

Since 2001, The Vietnam Archive has been placing many materials online to facilitate free and easy access through the Internet. Anyone can now visit the Virtual Archive and utilize thousands of documents, photographs, oral histories, and other materials through our website: www.vietnam.ttu.edu.

Please Participate in Preserving Your History

The Archive accepts donations as small as a single item or as large as hundreds of boxes. Donations do not have to be organized and do not have to pertain to a famous person, event, or organization. We accept all forms of original material, including papers, books, films, audiotapes, photographs, slides, negatives, artifacts, and maps. Material that is donated to the Archive does not circulate, meaning that it can not be checked out or leave the building for any reason. This ensures that the materials can be preserved for future generations. If you would like to donate to the Vietnam Archive, please contact us at the address and phone number at the top of the page or send an email to vietnamarchive@ttu.edu. Help ensure your legacy and the legacy of the Vietnam Helicopter Pilots Association by contacting us today.
